<sup>a</sup> Unlike Fair Share, where vouchers are allocated to each State or allocation area and then rated and ranked within each area Welfare-to-Work vouchers were ranked and awarded under a national competition as mandated by Congress.

<sup>b</sup> The number of vouchers available for FY2001 Fair Share purposes has been reduced by 525 vouchers to correct an underfunding error by HUD in FY2000 to PHAs in HUD's Moving to Work program in Oregon, Washington, Ohio, and Massachusetts.

<sup>c</sup> For FY2001, vouchers have not yet been awarded. The allocation for Alaska is combined with the allocation for Washington State, as can be seen in the next line.

<sup>d</sup> Only Fair Share vouchers are allocated to Alaska/Washington as a combined area, and only until funding decisions are made, after which (as shown for FY2000 vouchers) the number awarded to each State is announced. No funding decisions have been made for FY2001, so combined amounts are shown.

<sup>e</sup> Alaska and Washington were combined for the initial allocation in FY2000, but are shown for the individual states, because awards have been made.
